I authorize MarBorg to perform an automatic payment during the first month of the two-month billing cycle for any outstanding balance. For example, if my billing cycle includes November and December, MarBorg will charge my payment on the appropriate day in November (the last business day of the month for credit cards or the 15th of the month for bank accounts). MarBorg may deduct payments monthly for commercial services. I can terminate Auto Pay at any time and Auto Pay will be automatically terminated by MarBorg after receiving final payment on a closed account.
